Craig here with Lodger. I have a new open call up for an online exhibition.

THEME: The Breeze at Dawn

The theme of this Lodger online exhibit call, one year since the inaugural Uninvited Guest exhibit, is taken from Coleman Barks interpretation/ "second translation" of a text by Rumi:

The breeze at dawn has secrets to tell you.
Don't go back to sleep.

You must ask for what you really want.
Don't go back to sleep.

People are going back and forth across the doorsill where the two worlds touch.

The door is round and open.
Don't go back to sleep.

Any interpretation of the theme, from spiritual thresholds to specifically early morning inspirations, and everything in-between, above, beside, below and beyond the theme will be considered. Narrative, figurative, poetic, abstract, all welcome. All visual media, all ages and stages. This could be a prompt for something new! Open to all! Local, national, international for this online exhibit!

Deadline is October 31st. Planning to bring the show live online November 17th. A physical show might materialize later.
